Smith Elementary Helped Host Museum Adventure

Recently, Smith Elementary School loaded up nine busses of teachers, parents, students and other family members and headed to the Houston Children's Museum. More than 550 people attended this free event. It was obvious that everyone enjoyed a great adventure at the museum that evening. Principal MaryAnne Bronson said, "I would gladly do this again. Overall, it was a great success for a school-sponsored activity. It was exciting to see everyone having some family fun while learning many different concepts through the hands-on activities at the Houston Children's Museum."
