Camp STREAM is Back!

The Houston Public Library's (HPL) summer camp will have in person camps this year with a digital offering at the end of summer. Same great experiences, same cool experiments, and patrons can experience camp in a way they choose!

For the digital offering, campers will use provided STREAM kits to follow instructors via live streams. One kit will have a week's worth of STREAM activities and be sterile upon delivery. HPL will deliver a camp where safety is priority, fun is necessary, and learning is always included.
